

Rocky Mountain Goat Alliance Student Award Program

Thank you for considering Rocky Mountain Goat Alliance (RMGA) as your partner in mountain goat conservation, research and public education. The purpose of the Student Awards Program is to promote professional development of students with recognition of their role in future mountain goat research, management and conservation. To be considered for the award, students must submit the completed application, including provisionally-accepted conference abstract. The student must give an oral or poster presentation to be eligible for funding (if funding is limited, oral presentations will be prioritized over poster presentation).

Open funding periods:

- April 1st - September 30th
- September 1st - March 31st

Section 3: Products/Deliverables:

This Products/Deliverables section of the funding application form provides you, the applicant, with an understanding of the RMGA's expectation of acknowledgment of the RMGA's support during presentation and in presented materials. Following the conference, the applicant would submit a memo to RMGA summarizing the conference including key experiences, highlights and other relevant activities. Additionally, provide photos that the RMGA can post on social media, or otherwise disseminate to RMGA membership. These will be reviewed by the RMGA and the Science and Conservation Committee and may be used to showcase or in of different RMGA member outreach and social media efforts. This is in addition to any publishing efforts pursued or required of the applicant by other funding sources and/or sponsors. Final reporting is due to RMGA by the end of the next funding period after conference conclusion.

RMGA reserves the right to share all materials submitted with credit to the applicant and may at times, seek follow-up information to address member or agency inquiries and to keep informed as RMGA is interested in learning from applicants' experiences.
